Photos from the Race Course!

17 boats gathered at the Yacht Club Santo Amaro on Guarapiranga Lake, São Paulo - S.P. This was a great event. It included one boat from the Parana Fleet (South of Brasil) and another came from Rio de Janeiro where it looks like the fleet is reborn since they have 3 active boats now!

The new 2013 National Champion is João Hackerott with his sister Maria plus John Bennett at the spi. João is also a Brazilian Laser Champion. In the last few years he has been active as a crew in the Lightning. The team won without racing the last race. Impressive and I think good for the class!

The Yacht Club Santo Amaro did a very nice job organizing the races. The club is in very good shape and actually has around 100 children in their sailing school!!!

Finally my son Marc Buckup was elected Coordinator for the class in Brasil and I was elected as the new Commodore.

Best Regards,
 Mario Buckup, District Commodore Brasil
