Charleston, SC: The 2nd Annual Wild Oyster Regatta drew 39 boats to Carolina Yacht Club this past weekend. Lightning sailors from as far as Wisconsin, Buffalo and Connecticut were treated to beautiful fall sailing conditions. David Starck from Buffalo, NY sailing with wife Jody Starck and Jason Lutz dominated the regatta winning 4 of the 5 races. The race for second was very close between 6 boats. Charleston local, Patrick Hogan sailing with his son Peter Hogan and Will Sloger finished 3rd in the final race to claim second and Pierce Barden from Winston-Salem, NC and crew Joe Pitcavage and Emily Aspland finished third overall. The forecast for the weekend was not too promising, but mother nature turned on a perfect breeze from 8-10 building to 12-15 by the end of Saturday afternoon. Sunday morning brought another great day of sailing, 10-12 from the North and a bright, clear sky. This was one of those regattas where one might have brought the newspaper out on the boat with them to prepare for a day of light, drifting conditions...but to our delightful surprise there was no time for newspaper reading! It goes to show that you can never trust the weather forecast! Take a chance on some of those "forecasted" light air days...get out on the water and hopefully you too will be surprised!
