August 9, 2011 - Day 3 Report

Day 3 of the Lightning North American Championships brought a conclusion to the qualifiers and the 59 boat fleet was split into two divisions, the Championship Division and the President's Cup. One race was completed in each division. In the Championship division Ched Proctor from Cedar Point YC with crew Jamie Ewing and Meredith Killion took the line honors on the first race. Tom Allen Jr from the Buffalo Canoe Club was sailing with the husband and wife crew of Mike Holly and Valerie Tardif-Holly finished second. Hometown sailor from the North Cape Yacht Club, Skip Dieball rounded out the top three sailing with crew Tom Starck and Meghan Jordan.

Lenny Krawcheck from the Carolina Yacht Club convincingly won the President's Cup Division with crew Oliver Humphries and Elise Annis. John Morley sailing in his first North American Championship Regatta finished second with his nephew Phil Morley and fellow crew Jane Allen. The Morley Team is representing the Pontiac Yact Club. Another Family team from the Massabesic Yacht Club, Kenneth Deyett, daughter Ali and Mary Endsley finished in 3rd.

A second race was started but was abandoned with stormy weather encroaching upon the fleet. Racing is scheduled to continue tomorrow at 11am, follow live text coverage of racing at www.lightningclass.org

August 10, 2011 - Day 4 Report

The cold front went through La Salle, MI and allowed for 3 beautiful races in 15-18 kts on day 4 of the 2011 Lightning North American Championships. Ched Proctor, Jamie Ewing and Meredith Killion sailed consistently with 4, 5, 3 finishes to maintain the lead in the Championship Division with 13 total points. Defending Champions, David Starck sailing with his wife Jody and Ian Jones recovered from a premature start in the second race of the day and posted finishes of 3, 3, 5. Team Starck is just 5 points behind Team Proctor. Todd Wake sailing with his wife Kristine and Neal Fowler won the second race today and have 27 total points overall to put them in 3rd place overall. Allan Terhune sailing with his wife Katie and Sarah Paisley came back at the end of the day with a 4, 1 after finding themselves on the wrong side of a puff and capsized in the first race. Ryan Ruhlman sailing with his fiancée Tessa La Plante and Patrick Wilson took line honors on the first race of the day and 8th in the second race but could not overcome a 34th in the last race to break into the top 10.

Lenny Krawcheck, Oliver Humphries and Elise Annis consistently boasted a 2, 2, 2 today and remains on top in the President's Cup with 7 total points. Three different race winners from the day hold the 2nd, 3rd and 4th positions. David Lyons sailing in his first North American Championship Regatta had a 4, 3, 1 today to take hold of second place with 15 total points. One point behind Team Lyons in third place is 17 year-old Adam MacDonald also skippering in his first North Americans with his sister Joy and Laura Jeffers crewing. Team MacDonald was super fast off the wind and posted finishes of 6, 1, 4. Brad Wagnon, Stewart Fosscoco and Brian Bahler won the first race of the day and continued to mix it up with a 5, 3 to sit in 4th place with 20 total points.

Two races remain in the series. Racing is scheduled to continue tomorrow at 10am, follow live text coverage of racing at www.lightningclass.org
